Kenneth Dahl Knudsen is a Denmark-based jazz musician, composer, arranger and bandleader. He is internationally in demand as a sideman due to his intuitive virtuosity on double bass, a mastery that led him to work with names like John Scofield or Aaron Parks.

This night Kenneth Dahl Knudsen appears in a trio setting with two Greek musicians. The trio will venture out into new territories where they interpret both Danish and Greek musical heritage and present to the audience a mix of original material and compositions they love.

The entrance is free – all welcome
